

« Festi-Jeux » au 53ème Festival International de Château-Gombert

On the afternoon « Festi-jeux » of the International Festival of Château-Gombert 2017 in France ; in collaboration with the groupe « La Farandole » (Folk swiss group) the comite CIOFF youth swiss had pleasure of introducing games named « game of chocolat » and a musical instrument know out of borders : « Le cor des alpes »

For a long times ago « Le cor des alpes » was a communication medium in refions hilly of switzerland. Today, this musical instrument is an important symbol of our country wich lost nothing of it charm and bright, powerful melodies).

The participants of this play afternoon enjoyed in to discover this instrument rich in history, that's sure ! But... when they know to play a song their smiles were even bigger. Every child keeps a certificate of participation customised this to remember this first time to do this experience. Many children in Switzerland have chance to test « the game of chocolate » in holidays, during a birthday and other times. The players must be quick and dress the hands because while being muffled up, of gloves and of scarf, the purpose of games to unpack the plate of chocolate to beable to eat it

This afternoon « Festi-jeux » interested an important number of children of the region of Château-Gombert and then bright too curiosity of some artists of the festival. The whole took place in one good natured ambience and this instants were put under the sign of exchange.
